

English 12 Summer Reading & Essays
Mr. Travis

Summer 2018

INTRODUCTION

Well, you finally made it. Seniors. At Last. This summer you will be expected to read Tim O'Brien's The Things They Carried (ISBN: 978-0-618-70641-9). O'Brien's book is a loosely connected series of stories about the Vietnam War. Annotate the book—mark key passages, words, ideas, etc. My suggestion is that you look over the given themes (see below) and as you read, note passages that deal with those themes.

1. THE NOVEL:

Some of the themes developed in The Things They Carried are

- Fear of shame as a motivation
- Truth being subject to storytelling
- Things carried—physical and emotional
- Pressure caused by feeling the need to adhere to some cultural or community standard of duty, courage, or patriotism
- War and love

⇒ You will be given an objective quiz the first full day of the semester over the reading. Be sure you do the reading. If you do it, you will do well on the quiz.

⇒ You will have an in-class essay or two on one of these themes during the first couple weeks of school. Be sure you read and annotate your book so you can find support for your essay quickly.

2. THE ESSAY:

Most of you plan to attend college. A large part of your college admission rests on your entrance essay; this is one of the few areas of your application that lets the university or college see your personality and perspective. In order to help you better prepare for this, you are to write one college entrance essays this summer. Select and answer one of the following Common Application essay prompts OR one of the ApplyTexas essay prompts. Maximum length is 650 words. Use standard MLA formatting for the essays.

2018-2019 Common Application Essay Prompts

1. Some students have a background, identity, interest, or talent that is so meaningful they believe their application would be incomplete without it. If this sounds like you, then please share your story.

2. The lessons we take from obstacles we encounter can be fundamental to later success. Recount a time when you faced a challenge, setback, or failure. How did it affect you, and what did you learn from the experience?

3. Reflect on a time when you questioned or challenged a belief or idea. What prompted your thinking? What was the outcome?

4. Describe a problem you've solved or a problem you'd like to solve. It can be an intellectual challenge, a research query, an ethical dilemma - anything that is of personal importance, no matter the scale. Explain its significance to you and what steps you took or could be taken to identify a solution.

5. Discuss an accomplishment, event, or realization that sparked a period of personal growth and a new understanding of yourself or others.

6. Describe a topic, idea, or concept you find so engaging that it makes you lose all track of time. Why does it captivate you? What or who do you turn to when you want to learn more?

7. Share an essay on any topic of your choice. It can be one you've already written, one that responds to a different prompt, or one of your own design.
