1. Explore the Mastering A&P website and your e-text. Please click on the "Study Area" tab and explore each entry. Click on and explore all the entries on the left hand side of the page. There is a great wealth of information here that can help you now and throughout the year. Locate the "Get Ready for A&P" entry and click on it. Read through the entries in order to be better prepared for class.

Additionally, while you are in "Study Area", explore the resources for chapter 1 and 2 by selecting the chapter from the drop down menu and clicking the "Go" button.

2. Learn the Greek and Latin prefixes, suffixes and roots inside back cover of textbook. This list can also be found in the e-text pages. To get to these, log into your Mastering account, click on the "eText" tab in the left hand column. Click on your text front cover ("jump-rope girl"). Locate the Table of Contents (three bars at top) and scroll down to "useful resources". Click on "useful resources" and then on "Foreign Word Roots, Prefixes, Suffixes, and Combining Forms". You will be held accountable for knowing these terms and your knowledge assessed through quizzes throughout the first part of the semester and the appearance of these terms on test. Additionally, a list of these roots, prefixes and suffixes can be found in Moodle. If you have difficulty accessing Moodle, please email at pbrunson@brookhill.org and I can send you the document.
3. Read chapters 1 and 2 and complete the "Mastering" assignments along with the "Introduction" assignment. You can access the assignment from the "Assignment" tab or from the May calendar page (click over to May). Please click on the "submit for grading" tab when you complete each assignment. You have 3 tries for each assignment. Chapter 1 is an introductory chapter of anatomical and positional terms and chapter 2 is (mostly) a review of basic chemistry. The due dates for your summer preparation assignment may change one the school calendar for 2018-19 is published.
4. You will be tested on this material on your first test.

5. If you have questions or problems, you can e-mail me at pbrunson@brookhill.org. I will check e-mail periodically. If it is an issue that requires immediate attention please call Mrs. Gragg in the Academic Office ext. 1220 and she will contact me.
